AMC MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

AMC Commercial Cleaning is committed to operating our business lawfully and ethically and in only working with stakeholders that are aligned to our values.

We expect our employees, contractors and suppliers to operate in accordance with all applicable modern slavery laws including those prohibiting human slavery and slavery like practices, human trafficking and child labour.

We value and observe all laws regarding corporate social responsibility, environmental and workplace safety protection and staff inclusion and diversity.

We have an uncomplicated supply chain that includes the purchase of products and services needed for the businesses day-to-day. AMC has various policies in place that support our day-to-day operations to ensure all staff, contractors and suppliers meet the core values AMC Commercial Cleaning.

AMC Commercial Cleaning commits to:

- Assess the potential modern slavery risks in our operations and supply chains: Each business unit must adopt policies and procedures to ensure that it is addressing modern slavery and ethical sourcing risks in its operations and supply chains in a way that is appropriate for the relevant business unit.
- Review company policies on modern slavery in operations and supply chains:

  Each business unit must monitor and review the effectiveness of the policies and procedures referred to above considering their suitability, adequacy and effectiveness.
- Provide training for staff in modern slavery requirements: All business units will ensure staff are trained to understand the company's approach and how they should interact with stakeholders.
- Review supplier contracts to ensure they contain terms that are consistent with the legislation: Each business unit must, as far as practicable, include in its operational and supplier contract terms, requirements that suppliers comply with all local, national and other applicable laws and regulations in the areas in which they operate.
- Take action to address any potential modern slavery risks identified:
  Each business unit must initiate immediate actions in regard to any identified risks and report using the AMC online reporting system.
